

Human figure

Every student will have their own copy of the empty human figure. Students mark with coloured pencils where they prefer to be touched by family members (red pencil), friends (yellow pencil) and strangers (blue pencil). After that they can compare their figures with other students and discuss the subject.

1. Are there big differences between students? If there is, why?
2. How does one's cultural background affect the choices?